Hot Topics List – After Lunch 2:00 pm Friday

Please note: Changes from original list - 3 topics have been removed and 3 topics doubled up (2 tables) based on your feedback. These are in bold.

1	How can universities and tertiary education better connect with the MBCP sector?	Mark Walters, Racquel Peel, QCDFVR
2	What are the current workforce challenges, including retention? How can we build on our experiences in addressing these?	Louise Villanova and John Turrisi, WorkUP Qld
3	What role is technology and apps playing in behaviour change interventions?	Mia, DVConnect
4	How can we use community connection as a framework for ethical relationships with PUV?	Tegan, Diverse Voices
5	In what ways are the voices and experiences of victim survivors informing effective groupwork practice with persons using violence, and how do we guard against those voices being minimised or ignored altogether?	Chloe & Jen, Anglicare
6	How do we embed feminist practice frameworks in group and beyond?	Belinda Cox
7	Addressing Shame without Stepping into Collusion – How do we practice with participants to overcome the negative impacts of shame without colluding in their sense of self-absorption. How do we assist them to develop empathy as part of their shame experience?	Tori Cooke, Pandora
8	What do we see in our work that highlights the need for culturally responsive practice? How do we know when we're getting it right for our clients?	Hala Abdelnour, IONV
9	How can we measure outcomes? What are programs doing to measure behaviour change?	Chez Leggat-Cook, UCC
10	Child Protection Systems in Practice - How do we work when family court/child safety intervention is the primary motivator for the PUV? How do we interact with these systems?	Sophie Curson
11	Weaving intel into narratives. How can we use information received by WA and external agencies safely and effectively into the group space without consequence for victims?	Monique Lindeman
12	One on One: How do we hold space for trauma informed accountability in individual work with persons using violence?	Rodney Vlais
13	Person Centred Relational Practice – How does building trust, rapport and respect encourage accountability and change through engagement in process?	Cindy
14	When the worker has lived (direct) experience: what are the challenges, how does it shape our work, and how can we use it well?	Taylah Waters
15	What unique challenges and opportunities do you face as the only woman in the room? What helps you to hold this role well?	Sheena Haselden
16	How can we measure outcomes? What are programs doing to measure behaviour change?	Jen Williams

17	Addressing Shame without Stepping into Collusion – How do we practice with participants to overcome the negative impacts of shame without colluding in their sense of self-absorption. How do we assist them to develop empathy as part of their shame experience?	Alan Jenkins
18	Child Inclusive Practice in Engagement: How do we address men's fathering impactfully in both group and WA work?	Tim Kelly
19	Weaving intel into narratives. How can we use information received by WA and external agencies safely and effectively into the group space without consequence for victims?	Paul Monsour
20	When victim advocacy work identifies heightened or ongoing risk, how do we as a program respond collectively—and what systems or processes strengthen (or weaken) that shared responsibility?	Donna Chung

◄